This Sunday, June 6, will mark a significant milestone in the life of our church family. We will break ground on our new "Bill & Jane Clark Fellowship and Education Center." Everyone is invited to take part in our ONE worship service at 10:00 a.m. At the close of the service, Pastor Edmunds and lead the congregation to the site of the ground breaking, accompanied by bagpipes (in keeping with the Scottish roots of the Presbyterian Church). We will have a ceremonial Ground Breaking with a few of the local politicians who've made it possible to move ahead. We'll have "ceremonial dirt" for the ground-breaking. We'll be providing each adult with a special lapel pin (golden shovel, no less) as a remembrance of the occasion. Children 10 and under will receive a plastic shovel – one that they use on the dirt pile, too.

Be prepared for a great time! Bring lawn chairs, picnic blankets, Frisbees, etc. All are welcome to stay for lunch. We've had a pretty good head count and allowed for a few extras so that we will have leftovers to take to "Spreading the Bread." Bring your camera and share your pictures with the church office so we can post them for all to see and have a good record for posterity of this special day.

On Sunday, you will also be given an opportunity to make a pledge to the New Building Fund, increase your pledge, or make a special donation in honor of the Ground Breaking. Please consider how you and your family will continue to support the New Building Program.

Cookbook: Recipes Needed ASAP!

Calling all chefs, cooks and backyard barbecue barons! The 2011 Yucatan Mission Team is hosting a cookbook fundraiser and we need your famous (and not-so-famous) recipes for inclusion. Here's your chance to participate in the spiral-bound First United Presbyterian Church of Dale City cookbook, with your name as a contributor.

Recipes should be submitted in a typed form (so we don't mess up ingredients and measurements) and can be emailed to FUPCDCrecipes@yahoo.com. The deadline for submissions has been extended! Questions can be directed to Tim or Judy Camus at 703-897-5131 or to the email address above.

NOTE: There is also a pocket for recipes on the bulletin board in the narthex if you want to submit a photocopy or other paper version.
