GATHERING TO WORSHIP

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE

Christ the Lord is Risen Today

245

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Resurrecting God, we sing to the earth a new song: one of new life, one of new beginnings, one of new creation. The stone has been rolled away, leaving bare our perceptions of what is possible and impossible. As it turns out, nothing is impossible for you! Descend upon us, O God, as we worship you this day, that we might ascend to new heights and proclaim from on high the great and wonderful news: Death no longer has the last word! The world has been turned upside down! The lives of your people have been changed forever! And a new message rises: Christ is risen! Alleluia! Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: God is our strength, our song, our salvation.

People: And so we sing, we shout, we share stories of might and mercy,

Leader: that God did not let death lay its hands on us.

People: And so we pray, we praise, “Hosanna! Hosanna!”

Leader: The stone that the builders tossed aside has now become the most important stone. The Lord has done this, and we marvel.

People: And so this day belongs to the Lord! Let us celebrate!

OPENING HYMN

Christ is Risen! Shout Hosanna!

CONFESSION & RECONCILIATION

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Leader: We discover the stone rolled away. We see the tomb is empty.
We hear that you are risen.

People: But we do not believe.

Leader: We race to tell the story. We walk and you stand beside us.
Our eyes are opened.

People: But we do not believe.

Leader: We hear you explain it all to us. We break bread with you.
We are blessed.

People: But we do not believe. O Lord, help our unbelief!

Leader: Forgive our stubbornness. Forgive our emptiness. Forgive our faithlessness.

People: Help our unbelief!

Leader: Open our mouths to speak. Open our ears to listen. Open our minds to comprehend.

People: Help our unbelief!

Leader: Empower us to preach. Enable us to practice. Call upon us to serve.

People: Help our unbelief! The grave is silent. A new creation has taken hold. Thanks be to God! Amen.

MESSAGE

Rev. Katie Barrett Todd

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH from A Declaration of Faith, 10.3

In the death of Jesus Christ God's way in the world seemed finally defeated. But death was no match for God. The resurrection of Jesus was God's victory over death. Death often seems to prove that life is not worth living, that our best efforts and deepest affections go for nothing. We do not yet see the end of death. But Christ has been raised from the dead, transformed and yet the same person. In his resurrection is the promise of ours. We are convinced that the life God wills for each of us is stronger than the death that destroys us. The glory of that life exceeds our imagination but we know we shall be with Christ. So we treat death as a broken power. Its ultimate defeat is certain. In the face of death we grieve. Yet in hope we celebrate life. No life ends so tragically that its meaning and value are destroyed. Nothing, not even death, can separate us from the love of God in Jesus Christ our Lord.

THANKSGIVING & OFFERING

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND THE LORD'S PRAYER (unison)

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our debt as we forgive our debtors. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

DOXOLOGY Praise God, from Whom All Blessing Flow 608

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

God, receive now our offering which is just a portion of the blessings you have given to us. Use these gifts, and use each one of us as a living offering to you, for your glory and for your work of healing and wholeness in our world, our campus, in our congregations, in our homes, and wherever you send us to go or need us to be. Amen.

DEACONS: THE MINISTRY OF COMPASSION AND SERVICE

The ministry of deacon as set forth in Scripture is one of compassion, witness, and service, sharing in the redeeming love of Jesus Christ for the poor, the hungry, the sick, the lost, the friendless, the oppressed, those burdened by unjust policies or structures, or anyone in distress. Persons of spiritual character, honest repute, exemplary lives, brotherly and sisterly love, sincere compassion, and sound judgment should be chosen for this ministry.¹

RULING ELDERS: THE MINISTRY OF DISCERNMENT AND GOVERNANCE

As there were in Old Testament times elders for the government of the people, so the New Testament church provided persons with particular gifts to share in discernment of God’s Spirit and governance of God’s people. Accordingly, congregations should elect persons of wisdom and maturity of faith, having demonstrated skills in leadership and being compassionate in spirit. Ruling elders are so named not because they “lord it over” the congregation (Matt. 20:25), but because they are chosen by the congregation to discern and measure its fidelity to the Word of God, and to strengthen and nurture its faith and life. Ruling elders, together with teaching elders, exercise leadership, government, spiritual discernment, and discipline and have responsibilities for the life of a congregation as well as the whole church, including ecumenical relationships. When elected by the congregation, they shall serve faithfully as members of the session. When elected as commissioners to higher councils, ruling elders participate and vote with the same authority as teaching elders, and they are eligible for any office.²

See current ruling elders of FUPCDC on page 15 of bulletin.
